

International Certificates from IC&RC

Since 1981, the International Certification & Reciprocity Consortium (IC&RC) has protected the public by establishing standards and facilitating reciprocity for the credentialing and licensing of addiction-related professionals. IC&RC represents 76 member boards, including 24 countries, 47 U.S. states and territories, all branches of the U.S. military, and five Native American territories.

IC&RC member boards use IC&RC standards and exams to credential prevention, treatment, and recovery professionals on a reciprocal level. While certification or license names may vary from one state or country to another, IC&RC's international credentials include:

- Internationally Certified Alcohol and Drug Counselor (ICADC)
- Internationally Certified Advanced Alcohol and Drug Counselor (ICAADC)
- Internationally Certified Clinical Supervisor (ICCS)
- Internationally Certified Prevention Specialist (ICPS)
- Internationally Certified Criminal Justice Addictions Professional (ICCJP)
- Internationally Certified Co-Occurring Disorders Professional (ICCDP)
- Internationally Certified Co-Occurring Disorders Professional Diplomate (ICCDPD)

Earning a reciprocal-level certification or license through an IC&RC member board entitles professionals to purchase an International Certificate to signify their international, reciprocal status. To purchase an International Certificate, professionals must first hold a valid and current reciprocal-level credential or license through an IC&RC member board before completing the International Certificate Order Form.

An International Certificate is directly tied to a professional's certification or license with an IC&RC member board. They are not free-standing certificates and International Certificates will be issued to professionals using the same expiration date used by his or her member board for the corresponding credential or license. Professionals should contact their IC&RC member board to determine the equivalency of their credential or license.

Certificates are $25.00 USD each, and processing orders requires two to three weeks.
